Continuation of 11. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: The applicant argues that the emphsis of the invention is "using only a personal computer to achieve reord sound to picture and play back". The examiner respectfully disagrees with the applicaant's remarks because the prior art of record, Bhaskaran et al. US 2004/0141630, does teach use of a general computer (see paragraph 37) or handheld device, microprocessor systems and the like (see paragraphs 71+). Therefore, the examiner retains the rejection in the final office action.

Continuation of 13. Other: Claims 1-4 remain rejected as set forth in th final office action (see paper 5262006).
